This is where I spend my Sunday evenings and a prettier church and location would be hard to find. It is about 15 minutes walk from Miss. Wolff's home to the church and it is uphill all the way. The thot of the church at the top of the hill is beautiful, as after the long climb upwards in life, there is always rest and peace to be had at the top. This is one of the few churches in this part of the country having a cemtery still adjoining the church property.
